

What is Planning Aid?

We provide free and independent professional planning advice to communities, neighbourhood groups and individuals who cannot afford to pay professional fees.

Comment on large scale developments

Understand and use the planning system

How you can contact us

Planning Aid is delivered through staff and volunteers based in the community.

► Planning Aid Advice Line

Tel: 0330 123 9244

Email: advice@planningaid.rtpi.org.uk

► General Enquiries

Tel: 020 7929 9453

Email: info@planningaid.rtpi.org.uk

Other Planning Aid contact telephone numbers:

- Planning Aid for Scotland 0845 603 7602
- Planning Aid Wales 02920 625 009
- Planning Aid for London 0207 247 4900

Full contact details for Planning Aid services are at www.rtpi.org.uk/planningaid

Funding for Planning Aid in England has been provided by the Department of Communities and Local Government.

Planning Aid England is part of the Royal Town Planning Institute (RTPI). The RTPI is a registered charity in England 262865 and Scotland SC037841.

Registered address: RTPI, 41 Botoolph Lane, London EC3R 8DL.

Free, independent and professional planning advice

What do we offer?

How can we help?

How much does it cost?

What we offer

Planning Aid works with people and communities to help them understand and play a role in the planning of their local area.

Develop your own plans for the future of your local area

Get involved in plan making

Comment on planning applications or appeals

Learn how the planning system works

How we can help you

The Advice Line

You can call the Planning Aid Advice Line for free and independent advice on planning issues.

We give some advice to all callers but if you are eligible, you may be given extra help by Planning Aid England's team of professional planning volunteers.

Neighbourhood involvement in planning and regeneration

Community engagement is key to good planning.

Our dedicated community planners will help you understand the planning system and influence what happens in your area.

Our Community Planning programme helps groups and individuals by:

- Providing information and training on the planning system
- Advising and assisting groups to play a part in the development of plans and policies at national, regional and local level
- Helping neighbourhoods develop their own plans for their area
- Organising educational projects for all age groups.

How much does it cost?

There is no charge for our advice. The level of assistance will depend upon your eligibility. For more information on our eligibility criteria please visit www.rtpi.org.uk/planningaid

Donations are welcome to help meet the running costs of the service.

Find out more at:
www.rtpi.org.uk/planningaid

