Introduction

Southend-on-Sea City Council (hereto; the Council) is committed to protecting your privacy when you use our services. We are the data controller, this means we control how your personal information is processed and for what purposes.

The Privacy Notice below explains how we use information about you and how we protect your privacy.

We have a Data Protection Officer who makes sure we respect your rights and follow the law. If you have any concerns or questions about how we look after your personal information, please contact the Data Protection Officer at Dataprotection@southend.gov.uk or by calling 01702 215000 and asking to speak to the Data Protection Officer.

What personal information do we collect?

Personal information can be any information which relates to a living individual who can be identified from it. This can include information that when put together with other information can then identify a person.

The information we collect about you for your Bus Pass includes; – Name, Address, telephone number, date of birth, e-mail address and disability eligibility including medical evidence (if applicable). This information is collected in order for us to process your application/renewal.

Why do we need your personal information?

We collect the information in order to process concessionary bus pass applications under section 145A or 145B of the Transport Act 2000.

How much information are we collecting about you?

We will only collect the personal information that we require in order to carry out the processing of your application/renewal of a bus pass and any other tasks related to this.

Who might we share your information with?

We appreciate you have provided your information to us and may not want us to share it with others.

However sometimes it is necessary for us to do so.

We only share your information where we are permitted or required to by law, or where you have requested us to do so.

The personal information will be used by the Council's bus pass team. This information may also be shared with;

- External agencies like the police, fire service or other Councils
- Any person or organisation where we are required to because of a court order, legal duty or statutory obligation

Information may also be shared to ensure that we are carrying out our duty to protect the public funds and used for the detection of fraud.

How long do we keep your personal information?

The personal information we collect will be retained for 6 years following the completion of processing of your application. It will then be destroyed securely and in line with organisational processes and protocols.

Keeping your information secure

We make every effort to keep your information safe:

- We take appropriate care to secure the information we hold about you
- We have robust technical security such as passwords and information encryption
- We have policies and procedures to make sure your information is only available to our employees who need to see it to do their job, and we train these employees appropriately.
- We establish robust procedures and contracts to extend these protections to any other person or organisation we made need to give your information to

Transfer of information abroad

The majority of the personal information we store is held on systems in the UK. But there are some occasions where your information may leave the UK either in order to get to another organisation or if it is stored in a system outside of the EU.

We will have additional protections on your information if it leaves the UK ranging from secure ways of transferring information to ensuring we have a robust contract in place with that third party.

We will take all practical steps to make sure your personal information is not sent to a country that is not seen as 'safe' either by the UK or EU Governments.

Who can you contact about data protection and your rights?
